WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

Birr Theatre & Arts Centre, in co-operation with Jasango Theatre, Ireland and Selkie Theatre, USA, proudly present Bo Leictreach: The GreenPlay Festival, an exciting new festival showcasing original 10 Minute GreenPlays by Irish Playwrights.

Bo Leictreach takes it's inspiration from Electric Cow: The GreenPlay Festival USA, a new festival hosting site-specific performances of short green plays that Selkie Theatre presented in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, USA this past June. Electric Cow is now making it's debut in Birr and Ireland as Bo Leictreach: The GreenPlay Festival.

◆ Bo Leictreach is seeking new 10 Minute GreenPlays!

Plays chosen receive a workshop/rehearsal process, and a full rehearsed reading (by selected actors) at Birr Theatre as the highlight of the Festival on Saturday, 10 September at 8pm. Jasango and Selkie are proud to co-produce this exciting new opportunity for artists to give voice to our hopes fear and dreams for this planet that we all call home.

◆ Festival Writing Workshops

Budding writers & theatre artists can participate in the Festival Writing Workshops, including "Writing for Theatre" and "Harvesting Memories for Monologues", facilitated by American theatre practitioners George B. Miller & Kate Scuffle of Selkie Theatre. Workshops and performance tickets can be booked at Birr Theatre at www.birrtheatre.com. The festival is supported by Offaly County Council Arts Office.
